5 December, 2013

Dear Parents/Guardians of Level 4 students for 2014,

This letter is to provide notice of our camp to Canberra, which will occur from the 28th April, 2014. Although we are not asking for payment, we wanted to provide you with information prior to 2014 so as to provide an outline as well as the approximate costing and a payment plan for those who choose to take advantage of this option.

Firstly, here is the planned itinerary:

CANBERRA- THE HEART OF OUR NATION
Educational Rationale: To develop knowledge and understanding of Australian society, making use of the disciplines drawn from geography, history, civics and politics.

COSTINGS:

At this stage the approximate costing is $495.00 per student (the price cannot be finalised until early next year). We will be offering a payment plan of two payments each at 50% of the overall cost. The first payment must be made by the 17th March, where full payment is also an option if you would prefer. The second, and final payment, must then be paid by 20th April, 2014.

INSURANCE:

Please note that you may be interested in taking advantage of QBE Travel Insurance of $36.00. An additional file from QBE outlining their services will be sent out next year.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

The price includes:

- Holiday Park accommodation at Eaglehawk Holiday Park.
- Restaurant-style breakfast, dinner and packed lunches.
- Comfortable coach with a/c, reclining cloth seats and video equipment.
- Entry fees to:
  - Australian Institute of Sport Tour (Guided Tour)
